Description :

PDF-36052 | A voice for those who were silenced. This is a powerful account of a life that reflects recent Chilean history from the 1960s to the present through the author's extraordinary personal experiences. It recounts his magical, sometimes harsh, childhood, his development as a left-wing activist, his arrest and torture by the military regime and eventual exile to England. It is a story of love and survi... Being Luis: A Chilean Life
