Description :

PDF-ab305 | For once Richard Verrell was minding his own business. Taking an evening constitutional stroll. Passing by, as it were. But his detached state of mind changed abruptly when he saw his own car being driven dangerously along a quiet street at the back of the British Museum. Verrell was not the man to stand still and wonder. He wanted to know what was going on — and quickly. Before long he learned tha... Blackshirt Passes By
