Description :

PDF-ebdfe | This work gives a compelling account of the officer who waged the intelligence battle against Napoleon's army, a forerunner to the great code-breakers of the 20th century. The French army, during the Peninsular War, used a code of unrivalled complexity - the "Great Paris Cipher". Major George Scovell used a network of Spanish guerrillas to capture coded French messages, and then set to work decrypt... The Man Who Broke Napoleon's Codes: The Story of George Scovell
