Description :

PDF-1a8fd | A poignant, often amusing, occasionally hilarious and also, sometimes tragic recollection of a mental health nurse. The account recalls his first step onto the ward in the mid nineteen seventies as a horrified new recruit who hadn't realised the implications of what he had signed up for, but who nevertheless came to love his job and the people he worked with. He didn't expect locked doors to be the... Memories of a Mental Nurse
