Description :

PDF-237a9 | If you want to read an accurate and truthful account of what life was like in London's East End in the 50's and 60's, then this book is for you. It is for people from all walks of life who find such things intriguing. This is my personal tale of the first twenty-two years of my life being born and bred in the East End. A life that wasn't at all easy for me growing up with poverty and a lack of bas...
