Description :

PDF-8d1b5 | The central concern of this study is to examine why people choose to join campaigning groups, such as Friends of the Earth or Amnesty, in preference to political parties. Particular emphasis, however, is given to environmental campaign groups. Environmental issues gained increasing political importance in the 1980s, and the environment is subsequently mentioned in almost every policy development. ... The Protest Business?: Mobilising Campaign Groups (Issues in Environmental Politics)
