Description :

PDF-445d9 | Sherlock Holmes's investigations were not always the neat and self-contained stories that were presented for publication. As Watson writes in his "Foreword": Holmes's cases overlapped one another considerably, often with the next beginning while the current was still in motion. Some moved linearly from start to finish without interruption, while others stretched, a piece here and a piece there, ac... *Sherlock Holmes - Tangled Skeins - Stories from the Notebooks of Dr. John H.
